25 YEARS

Auction Party & 25 Year Celebration!

Friday, October 20th, 6-9pm

SILENT AUCTIONS • 10-ITEM LIVE AUCTION • ARTIST DEMOS • FOOD & MUSIC

Help us celebrate and raise funds for years to come! Auction items of goods, services, and art will be set up in various locations around the Arts Center building with plenty of time to peruse. See an item you really want? Then get it with the I WANT THAT NOW price. We'll have fabulous food, live music, and drinks. There will also be demonstrations in the letterpress studio, clay studio, and classroom. Plus the unveiling of our new mural by Abigail Tembreull. A 10-item LIVE AUCTION with Ray Sharp, door prizes, and some art surprises will round out a fun evening. Suggested donation: $10-$20.

Kerredge Gallery: Configurations, New Work by Joyce Koskenmaki

In her statement about the exhibition Joyce says, "Configurations is about my responses to two of my closest family members having near-death experiences this year, and also about my own fall and surgery and need for healing. The shapes begin with abstraction and evolve into imagery; mostly trees, as they are my daily companions on my walks with my dog. They are also my helpers and protectors."

Joyce has shown her work nationally and internationally, won awards and residencies, taught at six different colleges, and came back to the UP because it feels most like home. Please join us for her reception on Friday, Oct. 13 from 6-8pm.

Hancock Art: Streetside

Have you noticed the murals in storefront windows downtown Hancock? The CCCAC partnered with Copper Country Quilt Block Trail to make 12 new 4X4 Quilt Block Murals for our region. The murals are displayed temporarily in downtown windows for the fall. Eight of them already have permanent sites. The artists who took part in the project were: Anita Campbell, Claire Snow, Miriam Pickens, Frances Peterson, Julie Bakkila, Christa Walck, Cynthia Cote, Karin Schlenker, and Kris Raisanen Schourek. The murals are located at KC Bonkers, Northwoods Trading Post, 109 Quincy, CCCAC, Tervo Agency, 208 Quincy, The Flower Shop, and 325 Quincy next to City Hall. Thank you all for participating! Thanks to Western UP Planning and Development Region for the Placemaking Grant that made it possible.
